

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

Mark McGregor

Mark McGregor, CCTM, has spent 25 years in senior management of nonprofit organizations, including 15 years of transportation management in the not-for-profit and government sectors. He has extensive state and national affiliations in the public transportation industry. Currently Mr. McGregor serves as the Chief Executive Officer/President of the Virginia Regional Transit, Inc. in Purcellville, Virginia. He also served as the Director of Operations for The Arc of Monroe County, New York, where he directed multiple cost centers including business office, transportation, and data processing. In 2000, Mr. McGregor received the Community Transportation Association's award as Transit Manager of the year; in 1999, the Virginia Department of Rail & Public Transportation transit system of the year; and, in 2000, and an award of excellence from the Federal Transportation Administration. Mr. McGregor holds a B.S. in Business Administration from the State University of New York at Brockport and is a Certified Community Transit Manager.