

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

David Schneider

David Schneider is a program specialist with the Federal Transit Administration. Most recently, he worked with the Job Access and Reverse Commute (JARC) and New Freedom grant programs. In this capacity, he provided guidance and technical assistance to FTA staff, grantees, and stakeholders on implementing the programs and conducted evaluations of the effectiveness of the programs. David joined the FTA in 2003 as a Presidential Management Fellow and spent four years with the agency's Office of Civil Rights prior to joining the FTA's Office of Transit Programs in 2007.
