

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

Jana Hunkler-Brulé

Jana Hunkler-Brulé, CCTM, has served as the the project manager for BerkshireRides, a community vanpool service in western Massachusetts since 2004. During her tenure, ridership has increased by 53% and project scope has expanded to include a transportation initiative designed specifically for youth in the community. Prior to embarking on a community transportation career, Jana served as the town administrator in Adams, has also held various part-time elected positions, and is an avid volunteer in her community. Jana earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree from University of New Hampshire and a Master's in Education at Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts.