Paul Jennings

Paul Jennings, now retired, was the Director of Community Initiatives for the Northern Berkshire United Way, where he directed programs aimed at improving conditions for school age children. He also directed a countywide project that monitored more than 100 statistical indicators to enable community leaders to define and track economic, social, educational, health, and environmental conditions in the Berkshires. Northern Berkshire United Way has been an active partner with transit provider BerkshireRides and other community groups in establishing an innovative transportation program for school-age youth to after-school activities. Paul is a former school superintendent and active community member.
