

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

John McBeth

John McBeth is the President and CEO of The District (Brazos Transit District) where he has worked since 1982, assuming his current position in 1995. The District is the largest rural transit district in Texas and serves 16 counties encompassing 19,000 square miles. The District provides all modes of transit from demand/response, to fixed route, to commuter transit. Employment transportation is a major component of service plan of The District.